APPOINTMENT AS INTERN - ANDROID DEVELOPMENT AT APPBRO, AN APP DEVELOPMENT DIVISION OF BROMOTION MEDIA SERVICES (UK) LIMITED

Dear Ankit,

The management is pleased to appoint you as a Intern - Android Development to design various applications under the department for app development at Bromotion Media Services known as AppBro. Your responsibilities would include retrieving and researching the client requirements, finding resources to meet the requirements in given deadline with above par quality measures. Your commitment and contribution to ensure the success of this department is much appreciated.

You are expected to join effective from 27th January, 2013. The compensation for the position would be rewarded on a contract basis and it would differ depending on the nature and intensity of projects.

Welcome to the Bromotion family!

Sincerely,
